

Re-use of Public Sector Information (PSI)

The West Regional Authority is subject to the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2005 (SI 279 of 2005). The regulations are available at <http://www.psi.gov.ie/>

Policy Statement on Release of Data

Information posted on this website may be downloaded and re-used free of charge without application with the following exceptions:

- Photographs and artwork of any kind;
- Brochures, leaflets or other documents whose author is not the West Regional Authority. Documents, plans, maps, drawings, sketches, photographs etc. which are posted on the website for the purposes of enabling the material to be inspected at another time or place or to otherwise facilitate public inspection.
- Other maps of any kind;
- Any other documents/information in respect of which third parties hold intellectual property rights, including copyright;

Intellectual property rights are likely to be held for material provided by a third party, including links to other websites from this site.

Permission to copy or use any such material must be obtained from the holder of the intellectual property right.

Please note that information and documents obtained from this website may only be reproduced and/or re-used subject to the latest PSI licence available at www.psi.gov.ie

Public Sector Information owned by the West Regional Authority which is not available as set out above may be applied for by writing to:

The Freedom of Information Officer,
West Regional Authority,
Woodquay Court, Woodquay,
Galway.
E-mail: westrega@eircom.net

The application must be for the release of documents for re-use and must state clearly that the request is for the re-use of public sector information. The West Regional Authority's Freedom of Information Section 15 Manual includes classes of data/records held by the Council.

The Council will only supply data covered by the Regulations in pre-existing format or language.

As well as data protected by intellectual property rights, the Regulations do not provide for the release of personal data or information protected under the Freedom of Information Act. The Regulations do not permit the release of information in a manner that is otherwise prohibited by law.

For further information on the re-use of information held by the West Regional Authority, please contact the Freedom of Information Officer, West Regional Authority, telephone (091)563842. The West Regional Authority is not obliged by the Regulations to release documents for re-use. However, any information released will be subject to terms and conditions of the latest PSI licence available at <http://www.psi.gov.ie/> and such other terms and conditions as the West Regional Authority deem appropriate.

The West Regional Authority is not liable for any loss or liability associated with the re-use of information and does not certify that the information is up-to-date or error free. The Council does not authorize any user to have exclusive rights to re-use the information.

Charges

Charges for any document not available on the website will reflect the cost incurred by the West Regional Authority in the production, collection, reproduction and dissemination of the information.

The minimum charge for any one document whether issued in hardcopy, electronic or other format will be €5.00.

Details of the cost of documents will be given to applicants before they are released.

All charges must be paid in full before any documents will be released.
