

Proposed Additions to the Record of Protected Structures

Appendix V - Galway County Development Plan 2015-2021

The following buildings are now proposed to be added to the Record of Protected Structures (Appendix V of the Galway County Development Plan 2015-2021).

November 2020

RPS NO.	NIAH NO	NAME	BUILDING / STRUCTURE	APPRAISAL	TOWNLAND	TOWN	COORDS	IMAGE
4100	N/A	Thatched House	Detached 5 bay, single storey house with attic, c 1800 and single storey small extension to rear, c. 1980.	Building is of architectural and technical significance due to the retention of its original aspect and thatched roof. It is set in a rock strewn landscape with unrestricted views towards the Aran Islands. Of historical significance as former home of Dr Noel Browne	An Chloich Mhoir	Conemara	220878.36195 98354.57774
4101	N/A	Ivymount House	Detached 2 bay, two storey over basement house, c. 1800 with stone 2 storey outbuilding converted to ancillary use and 2 storey stable block retaining stable fittings. Memorial plaque in exterior of boundary wall, dated 1728. Site of St Bridget's church and associated well in lawn to front.	The building is a fine example of its period retaining its associated outbuildings and boundary treatment. The archaeological features of church ruin are well present in the front lawn attest to the earlier history of the site as does the memorial in the boundary wall.	Baunmore	Athenry	727095.78894 550322.37355

4102	N/A	Joe Cooley's House	Detached 4 bay, single storey house c. 1850, in derelict condition with decorative plastered façade dating from mid 20th century. It is associated with the celebrated musician Joe Cooley and has St Peter's Well situated in the front garden	The building retains form and decoration typical of its time. It is of social value due to its association with the musician Joe Colley. The stone roofed well which gives the village its name is situated within its front garden	Cuilmore	Gort	707125.380116 550561.38113	 A photograph of a white, single-story house with a grey stone roof. A small stone well is visible in the front garden. A sign on the wall reads 'JOE COOLEY'S HOUSE' and another sign in the foreground says 'NOTICE'.
4103	N/A	Lisduff Cottage	Detached 5 bay single storey thatched house c. 1850 with hipped roof, extended to side and rear c. 1980	The house retains its vernacular form, material and character, while incorporating recent extensions to side and rear	Caherbulligin	Craughwell	721839.51490 546673.38627	 A photograph of a white, single-story house with a thick thatched roof. A wooden bench is visible in the foreground.
4104	N/A	Thatched House	Detached 4 bay single story thatched house c. 1850.	The house retains its vernacular form, material and character	An Spidéal Thiar	An Spidéal	723581.57608 513196.63542	 A photograph of a white, single-story house with a dark thatched roof. A large pile of logs is visible in the foreground.