

Commission of Investigation into Mother and Baby Homes

Information and support line requirements to respond to public concerns following a public announcement on Friday 3rd March 2017

A telephone information line will be available to assist persons seeking further information in relation to the public announcement.

This service is being provided by the Dept of Children and Youth Affairs (DCYA)

DCYA Information line for factual information

01 6473188

01 6473232

In addition to this the HSE has an information line

HSE information line

Tel: 1850 24 1850

Available

Mon – Fri 8am -8pm

Sat 10am -5pm

There is also a telephone counselling and psychological support line available

Connect telephone counselling and psychological support line

Telephone 1800 477477

Available

Fri 3rd March, Sat 4th March, Sun 5th March 5pm -12am.

Mon 6th March – Fri 10th March 6pm -10pm

Referral to support services for persons requiring further emotional or psychological supports may be required.

It is not expected that significant volumes of calls will materialise but it is important that capacity is available to respond to demands as necessary.

