A Chara,

I dtaca le do litir den 7 Eanáir, 1967 mar gheall ar an ngearrceal CAIT A' MHEÁNOICHE, ar mhiste leat a rá an mar leabhar do na scoileanna nó mar leabhar don phobal i gcoitinne atathar chun an cnuasach nua gearrceálta seo atá i gceist agat a fhoilsiú.

Déanfar cead athfhoilsithe CAIT A' MHEÁNOICHE a bhreithniú chomh luath is a gheofar freagra uait.

Mise, le meas,

A chara.

Táim brúoch dhíot faoi do litir a tháinig agam ar an 14ú lá.
dhon mhí seo.

—^u Mar fhreagra ar an gceist an mar leobhar do na scolcanna nó dhon phobal atá an cumasacht gearrscéalta atá i gceist agam
a fhoilsiú, — níor smaoinne ar scolcanna ná ar choláistí. Chuirfeadh sé anáirntas orm dá gceist ar aon chláir scoile é mar bédh scéalta ann nach raibh glacadh ag an Roinn Oideachais le tamall de bhanta 5 SHIN 0

A chara
Tain buíoch d'he Roinn Oideachais as áit cead a thabhairt dom ^{an seán suat} C. a. M. O.
a chur isteach i gceist ~~na~~ de gheallseálta, D'he ndóigh, glacfaidh mé leis na comniollacha ma bhainim leas as an seál.
Thug Comhlucht Oideachais
na hÉireann cead dom ^{gairt seál} ~~Boladh an Ghréithe~~ a baineadh as leabhar ^{seála} "Eriúthrecht 7 Beannabhar" a cath-fhóilsú gan comniollacha ar bith

Secretary,
Educational Coy of Ireland,
Dublin.

SIR,

~~I would be base ingratitude on my part if I did not~~ sincerely thank your ~~co~~ company for having permitted me unconditionally to use in a new collection the short story,

"^v Boladh an ^{concerns} Urcatha.

Your letter was a real pleasure following correspondence on a similar subject with another party who seemed to think that it should assume the importance of a world-shaking event.

As ^{our} ~~your~~ systems of shorthand differ ~~from mine~~ I regret that I am unable to decipher your name; so please excuse me for again addressing you as secretary.

I wish your company every success and you yourself health and happiness.

Yours truly Tomás Bairéad
