RESOLVED - That the receipt of the Resolution of the County Council of Roscommon of the 6th December, 1912, re the increase in the total poundage rates of the Ballinasloe No 2 Rural District Council be acknowledged, and the County Council be informed that this Council consider the reply and explanation most unsatisfactory and look upon them as at variance with facts and an evasion of the question asked; and request that the County Council will be good enough to explain how the County-at-Large Charges increased by One Shilling and Sixpence in the £. over last year, and what was the cause of such an abnormal increase. The question is a simple one and ought to be easily answered without ambiguity or equivocation.
