A Special Meeting having been duly summoned for this day to take into Consideration the propriety of Memorializing the Lord Lieutenant on the insecure and dangerous Manner in which Traders selling Gunpowder in Ballinastoe keep same, after due Consideration the following was adopted,

To his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The Memorial of the Town Commissioners, Merchants, Traders, and Inhabitants of Ballinastoe in the County of Galway,

Respectfully Sheweth;

That your Memorialists who reside in the Town of Ballinastoe, when a few days since a fatal occurrence took place from an explosion of Gunpowder; Most respectfully call your Excellency's attention to the insecure and dangerous Manner in which Traders who sell gunpowder in this Town keep same in their Houses and Stores, those Houses and Stores being immediately on the public Streets, adjoining other Houses, thus endangering the Lives and properties of a portion of her Majesty's subjects,

Memorialists most earnestly and respectfully request that your Excellency will please give orders to the Police or other Authorities, to have the gunpowder removed from the Houses of the Traders to the Magazines of Shannon Bridge, or Athlone, until those Traders prepare proper and secure Magazines for the keeping of same, at a safe distance from the Houses and Streets

And your Memorialists shall as in duty bound pray

Signed on behalf of the Town Commissioners &c.
