Ballinastoe 27th October 1851.

My Lord)

The Commissioners for the Improvement of Ballinastoe presuming that your Lordship enjoys a Patent for holding a Fair in this Town on the 27th of March in each year, as noted in the Almanac, have requested me to state to your Lordship, that in their opinion, the opening of this Fair would be conferring a great benefit on the Inhabitants of this locality, and a similar Convenience to the public generally.

It has been believed a Matter of Complaint amongst

the Month Summers that the Fair held here on the 7th of May is too late in the season for purchasing Store Cattle &c; and that they are obliged in great Measure to buy such at the Fairs held earlier in the Year, for instance at the important Fair of Athlone held on the 25th of March, and the Fairs of Eggescent, one held in March & the other at Easter,

From the increased facility of coming to this Town, its central position, and its very superior advantages as to Accommodation, Convenience &c; it is natural to suppose that both buyers and Sellers would prefer attending a Fair held here in March, to either of the places just mentioned,

These facts they most respectfully submit for Your Lordships consideration, and should you coincide with the views of the Commissioners, they trust your Lordship will be pleased to adopt the necessary steps, by publicity and otherwise to hold, and establish this Fair.

Gasbally December 12, 1851

Sir

Referring to your letter of the 27th October, relative to the revival of a fair at Ballinastoe which the Almanacks record as having been held on the 27th of March. I have made enquiry respecting it.

It does not appear that there ever was a patent for holding such a fair, it therefore must have been held by prescription, and as it has been very long interrupted. I apprehend that the lawfulness of now reviving it, may be questioned. I believe however from the testimony of all with whom I have consulted on the matter, that a fair in February or March held at Ballinastoe, would be of great advantage to the County. I am therefore quite prepared, should a requisition be made to me for that purpose from any considerable number of the Stock farmers, suggesting at the same time the day or days most convenient for the holding of such fair, to apply for a patent to authorize its being held.

I am Sir

Your Obedt Serv^t

Clancarty.
