Visiting Committee Report.

I have again to call the attention to the yard walls and gates. on my going through the yard this day a pauper named Martin Conner, (an inmate of the Prison Ward) was standing on the ledge of the south Gate, talking to several carmen who were outside he or any other pauper has no difficulty in securing any thing out over the gate or walls and the gravel is cleared away from the bottom of the Gate too.

That planter is carried on in this way I am quite satisfied. Therefore the yard should be at once properly enclosed I think it would be ~~convenient~~ advisable to convert the (Prison) yard into a new green sod all outside the channel and make them nice pleasant grounds for the children to play in
