Letter No 3603 dated 15th January 1859
Relative to the payment of £73-0-0 to Dr Payne Roundedale Dispensary and directing guardians to Resolution of Committee —

That the guardians view with great alarm certain parts of Parliament tending to increase the Poor Rate to such a degree as scarcely to be creditable. — The heavy famine rates had scarcely been moderate before the medical charities came into play at a cost of an average of 1000 in the pound. — The new Vaccination Act comes, and it appears that the result of just three months working in Roundedale District is a cheque for £73-0-0 to the officer — this if continued for 12 months make a rate of 1/2 in the pound for the operation act alone — The vaccination act particularly in some to rate payers means the Dispensaries were so arranged formerly the medical officer performed the duty a week gratis to the Poor People and included that duty. — It appears that Register of births was kept and an compulsory on parents to get their children all this enormous expense which incurred would have been saved

Resolved that Form H. containing a paper names of persons vaccinated in the

Hifden Union

Proceedings at Extraordinary meeting of Board of Guardians of Hifden Union held on Saturday February 1859 -

Summoned on the requisition of Messrs R Joyce and Mr Farr, to take into consideration

- "a letter from Mr (Arthur) Solijuto, with application for the relief of John against the Guardians of the Union"

In the Chair Mr R Hart Esq

Other Guardians present Mr R Joyce

Mr W Farr

Mr G Shea

Mr R Revell

Roseville, Larkham

16th February 1859

Dear Sir

I send you herewith the affidavits as yet filed by Mr Solijuto, and he rests his claim for the portion of the object to, viz - the items for special attendance and going to & from to make an affidavit never before heard of, and as I before now, he allowed, unless Mr Solijuto is able to produce positive proof on oath, that he received the directions from the Board after I appeared first that if he went on such special attendance would charge £3-3-0 a day, and further special attendance was not required in as his agent there would be able to attend business

There is fortunately, no minute of the Board requiring such special attendance, but if he can now get Guardians to state, that they gave him such, verbally, he will be held personally responsible for Next Meeting of the Guardians to be held on Wednesday 23rd day of February 1859.

(Signed) Arthur M... Clerk of the Union

Special attendances, as the Rates cannot be charged thereunto. when such directions were not put on minutes in a regular manner as to the Darcy rate in November 1850 he charges no less than £11 for verifying (or he says) the accounts in this, besides £15-15-0 for making them out, which was then after collection —

He also charges £30 odd for going to Dublin in February 1852 and £15 odd for going to Dublin in 1852 to get the Rates due on the O'Connell Estate from Messrs Lewis & Howe, and yet I believe he did not charge them at all —

I merely give you those few items here as a sample of the charges made, and so utterly usual are they in a solicitor's bill of costs, that a taxing officer he has been before, have objected to them, without the faintest proof that such very special directions were given to a solicitor as to publicists do the business there where the law does not reside for the purpose, or has an office here to do so for him, and for which he is entitled to the usual fair charges, to which I do not object. These monstrous items hereinbefore referred to, and it now appears my objections are well

The taxing officer has advanced the tax to enable the affidavits to be answered, and other affidavits to be filed by Mr. Fuller which he intends to use, and which of course we will be obliged to answer, but in the meantime, have what answer you can prepared on them now sent and forwarded to me at once and return me all the Junior Mr. Hildebrand's affidavit which Mr. Fuller would have filed yesterday, has not been considered much. Mr. H. should so interfere. He may get himself into a scrape as persons making voluntary affidavits sometimes do

Thomas Butler

Carlow
18th 2/54

Dear Sir

I just write to you you must have had some time to answer fully and fairly even if not forward by Messrs Smith, Lyles & Co. as they get sufficient time now that he has taken time to prepare his proofs in support of his extraordinary charges —

It will be important to have the charges by as many as possible that Mr. Smith acting as clerk refused to take any order, but those reduced to writing on the minutes in a regular way, and that the collector were not the disreputable and incompetent persons whom Mr. Fuller has proved they were, and he was a witness to the deceased collector whose character in position as a "folding saddle" Mr. Fuller so much undervalues. Of course you will understand what I want is full instructions from the affidavits which when received will be put into Mr. Fuller's hands and return you to have sworn before the

It is very singular that after Mr. Fuller's motion on the 17th inst. appointed a committee of the 17th for the further consideration of the session business yet neither Mr. Fuller nor the solicitor made any appearance.

Yours friend
Thomas Butler

Messrs J. Mullen and Joseph W. Dornan were in attendance, and directed to prepare answers to the affidavits by the 20th inst.

Resolved that having taken into consideration the affidavits of Messrs Smith and Fuller the Court considered the same as at variance with the facts in several particulars and the gentlemen are prepared to make affidavits in support of their affidavits.
