for the

I suppose you have learned from the result of the taxation of Mr. [unclear] that the matter was adjourned on Friday last at least so far as the grounds on which subjected to those facts furnished, were fully borne out by the taxing master. The result of this taxation is as follows:

The total before the taxers, Taxing master including which are only about half gone thro, is also £ 196 - 3 - 0
The total of facts up to half 48 and reduced by the sum of 115 and serious to say since a great deal of trouble has not as yet taken any further step to have the Bill of facts finished, but perhaps he may have succeeded so well on Friday -

The facts furnished for Petty Sessions business amounting to upwards of £100 has been done altogether, so far for three Bills -

The Quarter Sessions costs have gone thro. but from the best reductions made it appears Mr. [unclear] has not been to have them finally taxed but perhaps he and then there is one other Bill which has been done anything with at all as yet

Dear Sir

I wish you would make inquiry after what money was actually received out of the O'Keefe estate from the Incorporated Estates Court - stating how much on account of Rates and how much on account of Rents as there is an item of £54 which has been been allowed for taxed Rents representing a lot of unpaid Bills Deeres in that matter and which of right ought to have been received together with the arrears of Rates but this item was some of being struck off - but he paid the the taxed Rents thereof - there was no alternative however it occurs to me that perhaps the Rents have been paid with the Rates, and so have gone to the credit of the Rates also when, and by whom, and how much money was paid —

Another Bill of Rents has been taxed on 11th 13-14 of last - by the Manuree Taxing officer and reduced from £222-2-7 to £101-13-9 and another Bill of Rents has been taxed on the 20th by the Law Taxing officer, and reduced from £511-1-0 to £118-16-7 and it is in this last Bill that this item of £54 has been allowed —

Hence lay this before the Board

Yours faithfully

Thomas Mitchell
