motion the following explanation from Master and Matron were read —

Gentlemen

With reference to Commissioners letter requiring me give a written explanation relative to Mr Blake's notice of motion I have the honor to inform you that the clothing and bedding of the Workhouse is very old and much worn and very few changes of same can be effected in the house. I beg to refer you to the several requisitions on my Journal requiring further supplies, the issue clothing of the several Classes of inmates and the sheetings all changed the one weekly and the other fortnightly according to regulations. They are very much worn but clean — There are four beds and bedding in the schoolmaster's room for the Boys use two of the beds are made down on the floor and two others are fixed on bedsteads remaining there since occupied by a schoolmaster — On the occasion referred to the boys removed the beds from the floor and placed them over there on the bedsteads — The dirt in the room was occasioned by the night bucket being upset by one of the Boys — when I enquired the Wardmaid for not having it clean. She said to me she left it in that state to show the conduct of the Boys in order to have them punished. I had not time to inspect the Dormitories on that morning owing to my having been called upon upon by the Clerk to prepare a half yearly abstract of provisions and necessaries received and consumed for half year ended - without delay and had no even a porter and had to do his duty, a coal box with ashes taken from the Clerk's office and a bucket from the Porters room were only awaiting the opening of the side gate for removal to the dung pit and you are aware Gentlemen I have very few paupers to do what is to be done so that a little delay may sometimes occur, with reference to the bones - I asked the kitchen women why they had the bones collected, they told me they kept them to give the woman that brought the brooms as they thought it better than throw them away. Classes of inmates and the sheetings are changed

sioned by the night bucket being upset by
one of the boys — when I enquired the wardmaid
boys in order to have them punished. I had not time to inspect the Dormitories on that

Resolved that in reply to Commissioners letter No 16131 the Board beg to state that they again respectfully request the Commissioners will reinstate the master for the following reasons - viz
That on the 18th May (the day on which Messrs Make and Carr visited the House) the master was called on by the Clerk to prepare an abstract of the half yearly acc for the auditor and being so engaged could not attend his other duties with that zeal and efficiency with which he was wont to carry them out particularly as he was obliged to perform the duties of Porter at the time

That he has been in and out door officer of this for the last 13 years and the Board never had cause even to reprimand him. but had every reason to consider him discharging his duty faithfully and honestly - That if the Commissioners kindly sanction his reappointment the Board pledge themselves that the slightest dereliction of duty in future they will call on him to resign or recommend his dismissal under seal but at the same time feel almost confident that no such cause will arise - That the master appears to regret much giving the guardians or the Commission any cause of complaint against him and promises faithfully that if he be reinstated no future cause shall occur - The Board beg further to state that he has a long family solely dependent on him for support -
