 Relative to W Bion's letter - Resolved in reply to the Commissioners letter of June 1864 requiring our explanation on W Bion's letter of June 13th we have to inform the Commissioners that the practice of giving money for clothes, such as their informant describes, has long since ceased and we believe the case of Margaret Magrath quoted by W Bion was one of the last cases of the kind and which was on the 29 July 1863 to which we beg to refer the Commissioners. Their informant although at the Board that day does not appear to have protested against it -

Sanctioning appointment of M. J. Painter as medical officer for Enishboppin -

The following explanation was read from Workhouse Master relative to complaint of Peter Synch

Gentlemen

In accordance with your orders I beg respectfully to offer the following explanations in answer to Commissioners letter -

First I distinctly deny to have ever beaten a boy in the Schoolroom if a boy acted improper I corrected him Edward Hubert, had been the Whitewasher to this House for the past 3 years. he was a Mason by trade on the 24 June. I sent him to whitewash the Kitchen. I also sent a man to attend him the man went out for some time when he returned he found him stretched in a fit on the floor which the Doctor pronounced to be apoplexy and of which he died the same night. every care and attention was given him -

I refused Synch for a pass as I considered that the Fair day was not a fit day to allow paupers to wander about as the Board had cautioned me very strongly against giving passes The refusal of the pass has been the cause of putting forward his complaints he on many occasions shewed himself very improper and abusive which from the nature of his disease. I had hitherto overlooked -

Hoping that these explanations will suffice -

Your Gentlemen

your obedient

John Heavner

Resolved that Peter Synch having stated before the Board on the 6th inst that the Master was drunk on a certain day that the Master be required to give a full explanation to this Board on this day week -

R S Sommers letter N^o 16094.. Dated 23 August Requesting to be furnished with Copies of Reports of Master & Porter relative to case of Eliza Duane —

Gentlemen
I beg leave to state that on Saturday morning the 13th inst the Porter informed me that a Patient in the Hospital named Eliza Duane scaled the boundary wall. I went direct to the Hospital horse and demanded of her to let me see Eliza Duane — She had all places guarded against her and at 5 minutes past 12 o'cl she made her appearance at the gate the time she left was 20 minutes past nine —
