 Gentlemen

I was surprised on visiting the Workhouse yesterday to find that the Master had used threatening language to one of the Protestant inmates because she received more than one tract from me telling her she had better mind herself what she was doing. Certainly I did not expect I was going beyond my duty in giving her or any under his charge as many tracts

The cases of provisional relief, and applications for relief were considered and decided on, as set forth in the Application and Report Books.

The number of provisional admissions to the Workhouse confirmed was Read letter from Workhouse Master relative to complaint of Rev W Campbell inserted on minutes of last Board day

Gentlemen

In compliance with your order I beg respectfully to reply to the letter of the Rev W Campbell. I assure the Board I had no intention to interfere in any way with the duties of the Protestant Chaplain or any member of his charge. It was represented to me that Anne Holgan was causing a disturbance in the ward and I considered it my duty to caution her to keep quiet which is all I did nor did I ever threaten her in any way or limit her to the use of any number of tracts she might think fit to use. I never before heard nor was it reported to me that she was in any way disturbed in her prayers if I had I would have interfered to protect her — This is all I know or have to explain in the matter

I am gentlemen
