The Report of the Visiting Committee was read, and Orders were made thereon as follows:

The Reports of the Master and other Officers were read, and Orders made thereon as follows:—
In compliance with Board's order. I have to inform you that when your first order was made to employ Honor Joyce as an Hospital Wardsmaid. I carried out the direction of the Board and she was removed from the Hospital. She subsequently was taken ill and remained for some time in the Hospital a patient on her discharge there being a great want of an experienced nurse. to attend several bad cases, of fever (to the number of 14) besides other serious cases of accidents then in Hospital. Having gone through the inmates of the House. I could find none fit to discharge the duties as there were only aged and infirm and nurses with young children. On speaking over the matter with the medical officer it was thought advisable to employ Honor Joyce temporarily until a substitute could be found. But for this arrangement

The following Orders of the Poor Law Commissioners were laid before the Board, and directions given thereon as follows:

the sick would have to go without due and proper attendance

Your obed<sup>t</sup> servant
John Nesme
