R L Commins letter relative to complaint of John Marison against Workhouse Master

The following letter of explanation was read from Workhouse Master

3rd Janry, 1866

Gentlemen

According to your directions I now respectfully submit my reply to the charges preferred by John Marison - against me in his letter to the R L Commins. In the first place they state that his whole letter is most unjust and full of misrepresentations. I state that no patient ever received letter care or more indulgence than John Marison and for this I appeal to the medical officer the Hospital Nurse and every other officer who came in contact with him. It is most untrue that I ever punished him or gave him bad treatment of any kind. This I must say his conduct on more than one occasion was not what it ought to be and that he was a patient most difficult to please or manage on a few occasions he complained of the different articles of diet and each time submitted them for examination to the Medical Officer who pronounced them good except on one or two occasions during the very hot weather when the milk turned sour though otherwise of good quality. I never heard a complaint against it and Tea was substituted the meat has always been of excellent quality. I never heard a complaint against it. On one occasion Marison complained of the Porter it was returned and notice given to the contractor to be more careful of the quality he supplied in the future. Marison was supplied with a coat the best the store afforded. But because it would not fit him nicely, he was dissatisfied and being a patient that spent the greater part of his time in bed. I considered it was not of much importance. As to keeping two days fast from him it was a ^{consequence of} mistake and the moment I was made aware of it I supplied him and the morning he left I was under the impression he got his Breakfast and did not find out to the contrary until it was too late but he was supplied with money to get food and refreshment on the way to jail. I deny most distinctly that Lewis was drunk or that water was ever mixed with the whiskey, nor it came into my possession. I sent it to the Hospital in the state I received it from the Contractor. The charge made by Lynch against me for being drunk and referred to by Harrison was fully entered into at the time (near 15 months ago) and the Resolution of the Board of Guardians exonerating me from the charge and expressing their approval of my Explanation was

The cases of provisional relief, and applications for relief were considered and decided on, as set forth in the Application and Report Books.

Furthermen
Having read the letter of John Marison to the R. Spence complaining of bad treatment which he alleges he received from the workhouse Master while an inmate of the Union Hospital and now in accordance with your desire

Submit my observations thereon. John Marison was a patient in the Hospital for several months and such daily came under my notice and I do not hesitate to say - That I believe his statement is most unfounded and that he received every care and attention that could possibly be afforded him He never received any ill treatment or punishment from the workhouse Master that ever came under my notice. nor did Marison ever complain to me of such, he got many indulgences and for months before he left Hospital, he received besides the the fullest diet half a pound of fresh meat daily and a bottle of port daily. he was a man of irritable temper hard to please and dissatisfied without any just cause he made a complaint to me once about his coat, and spoke to the Master to give him one and he told me he had given him the best the store afforded. His complaint about the articles subplied for the diet of the Hospital patients is without foundation. I have always satisfied myself that they were of good quality -

W. H. Saffield Esq
Medical Officer

The Board consider Mr Saffield's remarks on the subject of Marison's complaint exonerate the Master from any Censure -

Ordered That the Poor Rate Collector be required to use some diligence
