 22 May 1867

Gentlemen

In accordance with your instructions I visited the Island of Kappin on the 27th Inst. I went carefully through the Island - visited the several Townlands a good many families in the East and West quarters stated they were destitute. I gave them provisional ^{tickets of} admission to the Workhouse and offered them a conveyance which they refused to avail themselves of - The only case of provisional relief I gave was to one family -

I have no doubt but the people of the East quarter and a portion of the West quarter must suffer for the next two months to come, as they have no provision whatever and they can't get credit on the Island - they are also in a bad way for want of fuel - The Island is in a most piteous state with large dung heaps up to the doors and fetid cesspools which if not flocked after immediately will likely cause sickness amongst the inhabitants

The houses would require to be whitewashed inside for most of them are very filthy

The Bonds and other securities in force were laid before the Guardians by the Clerk, together with his Report thereon, as follows: (this on the second Meeting after the Annual Election in every year.) in the streets removed, there were several applications made to me by people who stated they were in want but able bodied to them I gave provisional tickets of admission to the workhouse and offered them a conveyance which they refused to avail themselves of -

A portion of the East and middle quarters would suffer but for 8 ton of meal supplied by Mr Brennan of Clizden on the strength of lobster fishing

Mr Brennan informs me he has 50 boats engaged to fish and that he will supply them with meal till they get provisions of their own

I have also visited the Island of Shuck and found no cases of sickness in it there were a good many able bodied people applied to me for relief. I gave them provisional tickets of admission to the W. House and offered them a conveyance which they also refused to avail themselves of

The only case of provisional relief I gave was to one family an old man with a wife and three children

I don't consider they will suffer much as the Landlord had his agent in them arranging with them for to go fishing
