Letterfrack
9th Sept 1868

Gentlemen

I beg most sincerely and gratefully to return you thanks for the kind and almost unanimous vote made in my favor by your granting me a Superannuation allowance of £40 a year. I regret however to find that same has not obtained the sanction of the Law Commissioners. I did hope there would be no difficulty as another medical officer of union in Ireland obtained a Superannuation allowance under what appears precisely similar circumstances as my case. I am still in hope if the Poor Law Commissioners are put in possession of the actual facts they may still be inclined to grant their approval I presume that the difficulty is that I did not devote "my whole time" to the duties of my office, as to the other facts there can be no question that for over 20 years I acted as medical officer to Clifton Workhouse that I was forced to resign from continued ill health broken down in your service and that I am now rendered helpless by disease and incapacitated from making any exertion now as to my whole time not being devoted to my workhouse duties. It appears that I was appointed as your Medical Officer in the year 1848 by a vacancy caused by the then Medical officer having died from Violent Typhus Fever which raged in your workhouse. This was in the midst

Midst of the famine years, and I now fearlessly assert that for many years after my appointment I did devote my "whole time" to the discharge of my workhouse duties. Not only in attending to the sick and dying, but also in assisting to procure food and other necessaries for the pauper inmates. I have frequently been engaged at your workhouse from an early hour in the morning until 10, 11 & 12 o'clock at night and when Cholera and Typhus have prevailed I scarcely obtained time to eat my meals. I had the workhouse, a fever and Cholera Hospital in Clifton five Auxiliary Workhouses in different localities. Under my care one of them at Dunroven a distance of eight Miles from Clifton. I need not tell you to do justice to all these. I must have devoted my "whole time" to my workhouse duties. So far did this reach that during the years I allude to - The Board of Health then existing in Dublin was obliged to send down two Medical Men from Dublin to take charge of my Dispensary duties as I was unable to meet them my whole time being taken up in the discharge of my workhouse duties - these facts cannot be forgotten by the Vice Guardians - the several Messrs and there are even some Guardians of those days living who can confirm my statement. Hyacinth Darcy Esq. now the Rev. H. Darcy, was for many years the Chairman of the Board and took an active part in the management of the union. He can tell whether for many years I did or did not give my "whole time" to the duties of my office as workhouse Medical officer. of late years fortunately destitution has not been so pressing but I respectfully submit that I should be in all fairness get credit for what I did do, and I therefore most respectfully urge my claim for what you almost unanimously declared me entitled to I did hope that a Katepays in this Union could not be found to remonstrate against the granting to me the small pittance of £40 a year (the highest however the law permitted) and for which I feel very grateful, after 27 years active service in your Union my health broken and constitution shattered and myself reduced to what I must ever feel a sad & melancholy state without a ray of hope that I may yet with Gods blessing be somewhat restored, and this brought about by fatigue and overexertion, constant exposure to wet and cold during 27 years active service. I feel I ever endeavoured however feebly to discharge my onerous duties honestly and conscientiously and that I now lost an opportunity so far as my humble services reached to relieve destitution and want and which I am proud today has not been overlooked or forgotten, as evidenced by your almost unanimous vote in my favor and which I again repeat, I shall ever feel deeply grateful for leaving my case further to your ^{kind} consideration

I remain gentlemen your faithful servant
