Resolved that Read order of removal of Mary Walsh and her three children from Leeds to Clifton Union —

Resolved that the Laws for Relief of the destitute poor so far as right to relief should be assimilated in England, Ireland and Scotland that in Ireland we suffer for the one sided Laws by which paupers can be sent to Ireland altho they may have been for 20 years in England Scotland and Wales. The case of Bridget Coake a married woman and her five children who were sent from Dumbarton and delivered up to the master of this Union on the 16th July last, in a sick state so that herself and 2 children have been sent to Hospital at 10/0 per week besides the support of the other children has been 13 years in Scotland and that should have given her a right of relief there

That this resolution be forwarded to each Union in Ireland with a request that they will adopt a similar resolution and be of their members of Parliament to press this matter on Government so as to relieve Ireland from a burthen which is not imposed on England, Scotland or Wales

Resolved that we desire to bring in a favorable manner under the notice of Dr. Brady M.P. the case of Dr. Saffield, for twenty eight years medical officer of this Union, who a year ago, borne down by disease and paralysis in both Extremities, was obliged to resign his office. his disease brought on in active service by over exertion and constant exposure to wet and cold. The Board of Guardians under which Dr. Saffield so long and faithfully served, feel that it would inflict a great injustice on him to exclude him from the benefit of the present medical officers Superannuation Bill - and they most earnestly recommend his case to the favorable consideration of the Government and House of Parliament and they respectfully request Dr. Brady will press it on the notice of the Government and obtain their sanction of a retrospective clause or some measure adapted so that Dr. Saffield shall not be excluded from the benefit of the present Bill. We feel it justly due to Dr. Saffield for his long & faithful service - his present distressing and painful position and for the zealous active and efficient manner that he on all occasions assisted the Guardians in meeting their financial difficulties and procuring food during the awful visitations of famine and that we should use every effort in our power to ameliorate the afflictions with which it has pleased the Lord to afflict him while thus acting in our employment -

Sickness -

Went on the following day and found a few loads of stable manure in Captain Geneste's field which he informed me he put there to have his meadow top dressed. I did not consider what I saw was a nuisance or injurious to health, as it had been such a long distance from my house and behind a high wall and consequently, took no steps to have it removed

I have not since inquired whether it had been put on the land but would not be surprised but it had of Evidence &c in the case of W.

P. Davern recently elected Master of the Workhouse

Resolved that from the Poor Law Commissioners letter the Board is convinced that W.P.
Davern acted improperly by signing erroneous Bills for Bengal stripe while acting as Master of Glenasmaddy Union. but they consider the offence was not of so grave a nature as to exclude him from holding any appointment under the Poor Law Act and as they think he has been already sufficiently punished they request the Commissioners will sanction his appointment as from his knowledge of workhouse business, it would be for the benefit of the Union

Amendment N^o 1 — This Board having considered the Commissioners letter and the papers enclosed are of opinion that they ought to rescind the appointment of Mr Patrick Davern as Master of the Clifden Workhouse — at the same time the Board wish to express their opinion that no suspicion of intention to defraud attached to either the late Clerk — Master or Contractor of the Glenasmaddy
Union —
