Relative to Dr Hart's Salary &c —

Resolved in reply to Commissioners letter No 2.990. declining to sanction the entire increase proposed by the Board in Dr Hart's case Salary. We beg to call the Commissioners attention once more to Dr Hart's peculiar position. As much as while he has considerable difficulty and expense in procuring the ordinary necessaries of every kind. yet he will never receive a fee on these islands owing to the poverty of the people. That was considering the Commissioners letter and our former resolution. We would request the Commrs to make the salary £90 a year - which under all the circumstances may be considered as low as it is expedient it should be - that this latter addition will only make the small increase of £5 on the Rates
