Read following letter from Milk Contractor

Dookhulla Lodge
Clifton 28 Mar 1872

Gentlemen

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of copy of your letter and also copy of your minute on the short supply of milk to your workhouse —

I regret exceedingly that you have such just grounds of complaint both as to deficiency of supply and its too after late delivery. I beg to assure you that I am doing everything in my power to try and get up a full supply of milk. I would gladly pay any price for milk if I could get it to buy. but a single quart is not to be had here —

My cows recovered quickly from the foot and mouth disease. but they so entirely lost their milk. that I have found it impossible to bring them on

on on again to milk anything worth to name of milk many of my new calved cows have got sick from I believe too liberal feeding in the main endeavour to force milk from them. I cannot get a good cow to purchase. I thought several and have found them an entire failure. I have a good man to calve, which I hope will be dropping from this out, and I shall do all I can to send a good supply of milk

I have the honor to be gentlemen yours faithfully
 H. Smith
