Resolved that we have known Mr Martin Raphael Hart for over twenty years during many of which he filled the office of Vice Chairman of this Board that we are aware of his life long experience and intimate knowledge of all matters connected with land whether as Landlord Agent, Receiver under the Courts and tenant farmer.

That we can bear testimony to his legal capacity and integrity which

We therefore strongly recommend his appointment to the office as calculated to give satisfaction to all classes concerned whether Landlords or tenants a matter of vital importance—

The Circumstances of the Union being much embarrassed and the expenses exceedingly high we look to the L. G. Board that the arrangements they suggest will entail no hardship on the destitute poor and further more that if during the winter the necessity arises the Guardians will be prepared at once to appoint additional assistance.
