Pursuant to notice of Motion handed in by me - I have to request the Clerk to lay before this Board the laws relating to the qualification for guardian - and to ask him if he is aware in what pounds said qualification was raised from £10 to £30 and I beg to move that as this is one of the poorest Unions in Ireland, and that so few are qualified and willing to act in the capacity of guardian. We hereby respectfully request the L.F.B to reduce for ever hereafter the necessary qualification for that office in this Union to what it originally was for that office in this Union namely a valuation of £10.

be altered with a view of making any changes that the Board may then think proper to make.

Joseph McDonnell

Take notice that I will move on this day three weeks that the appointment of Mr James Bony as Relieving officer for the Carna District be rescinded as there is not much relief wanting at present in the District and that the Relieving officer is well able to do the business at present and also that James Bony lives on an Island therefore he could not do the duty as Relieving officer.
