It having come to our knowledge that the Relieving officers of the Union are in the habit of absenting themselves from their districts going in charge of Emigrants to Galway which will cause them at least to be three days absent in the week, and this having occurred on several occasions, which must have caused the wants of the destitute poor to be greatly neglected in this trying season and further as we were recently obliged to appoint a temporary assistant Relieving officer

Resolved that we now direct that all the Relieving officers in the Union discontinue from this day forth leaving their districts without Board permission

To be notice that I will on this day fortnight move that the Resolution passed illegally at the Board meeting held on the 11th inst be rescinded and that the guardians bind themselves not to borrow any money for which they would have to pay any interest at all as it would tend to impoverish still further this already Bankrupt Union -
