The Memorial of the Clifden Board of Guardians to the Grand Jurors of the County and Town of Galway

That considering the urgent need which exists for light Railway Communication between Connemara and the Town of Galway, and further considering the strong approval of the Privy Council of the plans and Estimates for the proposed main line from Clifden (as expressed in their unanimous judgment recently delivered by the Lord Chancellor,) this Board does most respectfully and earnestly express the hope that the Grand Jurors of the County and of the Town of Galway will see their way to adopt the views of the Privy Council, as to the incidence of taxation the proposed rating (should rating become necessary) and that by affording such timely aid they will render the light Railway pronounced by the Privy Council to be of such material importance, capable of being constructed

Agreed to unanimously
