Acquainting Board of Guardians that Mr Micks, their Inspector, reports the financial condition of the Union as most unsatisfactory. And requests the Guardians to take immediate action to relieve the Union from its embarrassed financial condition.

The management of the Workhouse is generally satisfactory, but the supply of water is defective &c

L. J. B. Letter No 35.917 Dated 13 Oct 1885
Stating that the proposed re-arrangement of the Relieving Officers Districts is under consideration.

Notice of Motion

On this day, three weeks, I will move, that retrenchment is indispensable to the existence of this Union.

That this Board fails to see the necessity for or the benefit of having a paid officer for this Union under "the Cattle Diseases Act" the officer being a sinecure, the holder of it possessing no professional or scientific knowledge of cattle diseases, and the poverty stricken Ratepayers being unable to pay.

Resolved therefore, that the post be declared vacant.

Bernard Maguire
