at 157. per week.

bring under the notice of the Chief Secretary for Ireland —

The state of this Union in connection with the Relief of Distressed Unions Bill — now before the House of Commons that we are of opinion if the power proposed to be given by the Bill to the Commissioners for raising money was given to the present Board of Guardians we would be enabled thereby to carry on the affairs of this Union in a manner satisfactory to the Local Government without incurring the serious expense of Commissioners paid out of the Union rates —

Resolved That having this day investigated the accounts of the Poor Rate Collectors and Relieving officer for this Union, we find that there is a sum of £312, due on the Island of Rappin and the Collector for that District states he finds it impossible to collect it the Relieving officer reported that he had given relief to 32 cases, we would call the attention of the of Rappin and the Board have come to the resolution not to make any payments on account of Rappin circumstances —

on the subject of out door Relief generally and directing earnest attention of Board of Guardians to its administration & ordered in accordance with the suggestions contained in the letter of the Local Government Board dated 2nd August, we have carefully considered the question of the great increase in the number of persons afforded out door Relief in this Union. We had the subject under consideration at our last Meeting, when we came to the Resolution that the list should be carefully revised. We have had a considerable reduction since and we have given notice to the relieving officers to give no out door Relief to any individual who can be removed to the House.

Resolved That having this day, examined the collectors accounts, we are not satisfied with their collections, we therefore direct our clerk to write to their securities and inform them that if the collections are not immediately closed, proceedings will be taken against them.

Head explanation of Mr Michael Lydon, Poor Rate collector - Sir

With reference as to how I made an effort to collect the Bishboppin and Shank poor rates, it was simply in this way, that after I was appointed collector for the above Islands, I visited the Islands

On several occasions, but my efforts to collect the Rates on those places turned out to be very ineffectual, whereas the parties there liable for cess or Rates of any kind - they lock all their doors, and any collector has no chance of admittance into their premises - before they knew I was appointed collector, it was only then that I could get admittance on those Islands but since then I could not get a boat in Clifflan. Russadilisk anphris more or anphrisken to bring me there no matter how much I offered them for so doing, as those parties stated to me they were so much afraid if they gave any collector a passage to those Islands - they would be afraid of their mooring cut away - and their boats left in danger - The only chance I got was with Mr Robinson and Mr Redington to go on those Islands in a gun boat and when we landed there, nearly every house on the Island was locked up with their cattle inside. No parties could have done more to remonstrate with those people than Mr Robinson Mr Redington and myself, yet it was of no use, as they are determined to pay nothing - they imagine when living on those Islands, they are not liable for Rates of any kind -

I consider it is impossible to collect Rates from those parties without having a very strong force to protect me and also to get a mode of conveyance for any stock &c that could be seized on their lands, by getting this protection and remaining for some time on the Island - I have no doubt, but we could be able to bring them to a sense of their duty -
