Gentlemen I beg to apply to you for the balance due to my son Patrick Brennan deceased for services rendered by him in the distribution of potatoes under the seed act.

The application of it all goes towards payment of his funeral expenses - the cost of taking out a administration would exceed the balance due. therefore I pray the guardians to grant my request have the honor to be Gentlemen

Your obedient servant

 We find all the seed was rejected at first a long continued correspondence and telegraph communication with Messrs Cross - The seed having been picked & repicked and distributed with satisfaction to the people, the clerk had to attend to the distribution at the different depots he has had to superintend the sale of the surplus seed. The Inspector, Mr. Conyn, spoke in the highest terms of the manner in which he performed very arduous duties. We consider that in recommending he should be paid £50 we are putting a low estimate on his deserts. We find that the Porter is entitled to £1. 10. 0 for his additional trouble, the Master £5 for his trouble in having the Potatoes stored in the warehouse and his attendance at delivery and at sales
