Gentlemen

In compliance with your order of the 15th inst. I beg to tender my resignation as hospital nurse. - I am 30 years in the service of the Union during which time there has never been the slightest complaint against me, and I have performed my duties in the fever wards at times when that disease was raging here.

The Local Gov. Inspector states in his report that I am old and feeble, I would respectfully add it was in the service of the Union I became so and trust you will be pleased to award me the Superannuation that I am entitled to which I regret to say in the natural course of events I cannot hope to enjoy very long.

I have the honor to be

Gentlemen

Your faithful servant
