L.G. B. Letter No. 42. 081. Dated 17th September 1895.
With reference to the failure of Miss King Schoolmistress to attend the last examination of teachers for classification and requesting the parsons to call upon her for her resignation

The Workhouse
Clifton 2. 10. 95.

Gentlemen
With reference to the Cause of my non attendance for classification at the last Exam held at Falway, I beg to state:— That at the time I did not feel equal to the journey owing to ill health. This statement can be vouched by your medical Officer
I also beg to state that at the time of my Appointment now over nine years it was not made a condition that I should obtain classification and my predecessor was unclassified—

Since my Appointment I have done my utmost to discharge my duties conscientiously and at each Annual Results Exam held here the children were always promoted by the National School Inspector to higher classes and the girls always got best marks for Sewing and knitting.

The Local Gov. Board Inspectors on the different occasions in which they visited the school never found fault as regards the cleanliness &c of the children, or the manner in which I discharged my duties towards them; and at the time of my Appointment, the parsons unanimously selected me in preference to a classed Teacher, owing to my experience in needlework &c. — I trust gentlemen you will consider my explanation satisfactory

I am
Your obedient servant
Mary King

The parsons consider explanation satisfactory and wd ask the Local Government Board not to insist on the resignation of Miss King as the parsons consider she discharges her duties to their entire satisfaction and also considering the fact that at the time of her appointment it was not made a condition that it was necessary she should become a classed Teacher.

L.G. B. Letter No. 42. 565. Dated 20th September 1895
