For medical attendance at Clifden Workhouse & Hospital in response to the written Requisition of the Master during Dr. Forham's absence at Falway Assizes on former Summons in March 1900.

Orders - to be paid

Resolved: That the system of Excursion Trains given by the Midland & Western Railway Co. to Clifden is not calculated to do any benefit to the inhabitants of Clifden and is also no advantage to the people of Falway and other places who would take advantage of an excursion to Clifden for the benefit of the public generally from the fact that the Midland Company have on the same day given an excursion train to Falway thus preventing the people of Falway from coming to Clifden

It is to be hoped therefore that the Midland Directors will kindly arrange in future when fixing an excursion for Clifden that no excursion will be given for Falway on that date

To The Chairman & Board of Guardians Board Room Clifden

I Bridget Riely of Church Street Clifden wife of John Riely, beg to represent to you the great hardship of my very sad case - My husband is sick and confined to his bed for over 14 months and is now in a dying condition, and my daughter Molly is ill for the past 12 months and is also in such a weakly condition that her death is daily expected. - Both are suffering in addition to their disease from extreme want of nourishment, & want of attendance. My daughter was admitted to the Workhouse about 11 weeks since, and left that place about 4 weeks ago, since when she has grown gradually worse - On Friday last I made application to the relieving officer - Mr Tho: Lydon, to have my daughter readmitted to the Workhouse Hospital, but he refused to give a ticket for that purpose - I then complained of the matter to your Chairman, Mr Darcy who directed me to call on the Doctor. I called on Dr Gorham at once on same day and he told me to go back to the relieving officer, who was bound to admit her to the Hospital. I called again on the relieving officer accompanied by my son James Riely, who also requested that she be given a ticket of admission, but Mr Sydon refused & ordered us both to leave the house, so I have since then to struggle on, trying to provide nourishment for them without any mean of doing so, as my whole time is occupied in attending on them both, and have a long weak family besides.— I do humbly appeal to your Board, to allow me something weekly to provide nourishment for them as many of you know me, and are aware that I have no means of procuring nourishment for two persons in the State in which she and her father are.— And I also wish to complain of Mr Sydon's conduct as above stated.—

I remain gentlemen your obedient servant
