Distress in Clifden Union.

Even the Lord Lieutenant recognises that distress exists in the Western Districts, & the County Council of Galway have also admitted this fact by putting the 13 Sec of the Act ^{1898 again} in force with the object of starting relief works in the Clifden & Bunteraw Unions. are the S.G.B now to ignore the opinions of all & refuse the opening up of the works. This Board cannot understand the action of the S.G.B in not acting with all division of this Union in the same way. It appears that in the division of Selurnia 8 names was submitted by the R.O. and the 8 names was approved of & the works were started there. In Clifden division ~~29 names was submitted & 13 approved of no works were as yet started~~ ^{was} ~~here~~. In Ennis an 8 names ^{was} submitted & consideration adjourned. This Sheriff we submit is not strictly in accordance with law or justice. and we wish to bring the matter under the notice of the S.G.B & request they will at once start the works. where the considerations are postponed. The ^{Guarantee} of this meeting has ~~admitted~~ ^{admitted} the cases to our door relief pending the opening of all relief works & at next meeting if the works are not opened they must be admitted to the workhouse.
