resolved: That in Consideration of the ~~age~~ <sup>ages</sup> of the aged poor in our Workhouse, aged 70 years & over, and having fully considered how Mr Asquith's old age Pension Scheme affects owing to the fact that they are in receipt of Poor Law relief, and knowing as we do the deep rooted prejudice existing amongst the poor against the Workhouse, and that they would rather live in their own homes on five Shilling a Week, than spend their declining years in a Reapers home, we strongly urge upon our representatives in Parliament to exert themselves, so that our aged poor in receipt of Poor Law relief, may be included in the Pension fund provided by the State, the matter of pressing urgency is the removal of the poor of 70 years & over from the Workhouse and this can be accomplished by the removal of the limitation which Mr Asquith proposes. If the Poor Law Boards make an accurate estimate of the amount they have been spending on the poor over 70 both in the Workhouses, as well as in out-door relief, for some years ~~as~~ past, and and it over to the Government as a contribution to the fund. every poor person over 70. may receive the promised Pension of 5/- per week. The poor Law System is bad, and vicious, it is costly & demoralising, wherever therefore a better system can be adopted, its sphere should be enlarged and give relief <sup>to the poor</sup> in a form that will be more acceptable & beneficial;—

	Gentlemen.
	I visited the cases in Barnasheen this day
	The patients are convalescent but very weak. The house in which they reside is not much better than a hovel and is quite unsuited as a residence for the patients and their young children the eldest about six years old. The nurse does not live in the house so that the patients cannot be properly attended to. The Relieving Officer has limewashed the rooms and disinfected the interior of the house.
	Under the present circumstances I would strongly recommend the patients to be removed to the Fever Hospital seeing the difficulty of forwarding supplies &c. The Relieving Officer informs me that he has expended in one week alone the sum of £3: 4: 9 for medical comforts &c
	The cost for the support of the two patients in the Hospital would be considerably less. Of course they will require the services of the nurse in the Hospital. I hope to have the patients and children removed on Thursday or Friday. The Relieving Officer and myself will proceed to Barnasheen and supervise the removal of the family to the Hospital
	Yours obedient servant P. C. Spahan M.D. Officer

Acting Master's report. — 24: 6: '08

Gentlemen,

I beg to inform you that 5 patients were admitted to the fever hospital on the 28 May accompanied by a nurse from the Mater Hospital, when I received a requisition from the medical office to procure an attendant. I was obliged to engage one at 10/- weekly and rations preceding the meeting of the Board,

I am not supplying the nurse with any rations for which she expects the usual allowance will be given her in lieu of same.

The nurse's name is Miss Dorothy Lynch and the attendant's name is Rose Burgess.

Approved: — 15/6 to be allowed the nurse in lieu of rations and laundry. —

The Acting Master further reports: — That the Contractor failed to supply potatoes for the past week and he was obliged to substitute Bread instead Approved: — But the Contractor to supply potatoes from Saturday next.
