Medical Officers Reports

Gentlemen.

A patient in the Infirmary named John Doolley, sometime ago discharged from the better fracted Refractory has been under treatment during the past few weeks suffering from a severe form of Eye disease. He has not in the least improved under treatment here. I would recommend he be sent to the Dublin Eye Hospital for treatment and possible operation.

It would be absolutely necessary to secure the attendance of a trusty man to take charge of the two patients who are to be sent to the Eye Hospital, as both patients are practically blind and unable to take care of themselves during the journey to Dublin.

They sent to Dublin with an attendant in charge expenses to be paid—

The following Orders of the Local Government Board for Ireland were laid before the Board, and directions given thereon as follows:—

The following Letters from the Local Government Board for Ireland, and others, were read by the Clerk, and directions given to answer them respectively, to the following effect (or Orders made on them respectively, as follows):—
