Dear Sir

While discounting at their full value the statements made and the action taken by a small section of the Ulster Guardians, yet, for the sake of the poor and to prevent Cavil we hereby resign the position to which on the 11th February your Board was good enough to appoint us. Thus we do in favour of a member of our Community who in an eminent degree possesses all the necessary qualifications the Medical Faculty can give or the Local Government Board can require.

Yours faithfully

Miss M. Bookman
District Matron of Treacy

J. King Esq
Ulster Copeway -

Accepted

On the proposition of the Chairman which was seconded by Mr. James B. Joyce the following resolution was adopted,

That nurse Bridget McVeigh be appointed temporary day nurse to the Hospital pending the permanent appointment at the usual remuneration
