Read following received from Miss Lypen Contractor for meat dated 30th January 1917 addressed to the Workhouse Master:

Dear Mr. King,

Owing to the scarcity of sheep I will not be able to supply any more meat to the Union after this week as the farmers are asking such a big price for them when they had them about this place but I regret they have none now. I paid for what I am selling the Workhouse at the rate of 1/6 per lb. now I am run out of sheep and have none for the boiler today. If I could buy from any of the butchers in town at the price I am getting from the guardians (9^d) I would continue for the two months. The cheapest I could get it from one butcher is 1/4 per lb.

ORDN:— The Local Government Board be asked to allow Miss Lypen to withdraw from her contract, and if not to permit the guardians to pay her at the rate of 1/2 per lb. from the 1st February to the 31st March
