Sir,

In transmitting enclosed returns I beg to state that owing to the large quantity of letters soon being received, and the irregular manner in which applications were made, in some cases no less than four deliveries having been to the same person, and some people who had applied for seeds in the first instance being refused to take them and others who only made application at the time of delivery having been supplied, there may be a small shortage in connection with the distribution but the return is fairly accurate.

I am having forms No. 1 written out from the receipts and should there be any discrepancy at the different distribution stations I shall be a position to place the responsibility on behalf of the persons.

Dear Sir,

Your note of 19th inst received in which you mention that Mr. John M. Lyden is writing the proposal requesting that the Polling Booth fixed for Benmore might be changed to a vacant house belonging to the G.P.O. at Foreglass or to the Calla National School. I reply to you by letter of 27th inst on the subject.

Calla National School is everything but Central. I wrote to my uncle the instant to select the most central place and to notify you immediately, this I did, but before doing so I consulted with the C.D. about the house referred to by Mr. Lyden (although it's not nearly so central as the other house) but up to this I have had no definite reply and my reason for making the application was to have reference.

Mr. Lyden is writing a candidate of a party and I am not then surprised he should prefer for the purpose of incognitizing the place in my opinion. Mr. Lyden's letter is not printed.

Notice of all was issued on the 16th inst and published in each Constituency Division: - It was too late even if a mistake was made to allow the Polling Booth, which is one of the most central in all the County divisions and which I received your letter for the approval of all, as I said before.

I am almost certain my dearest letter is not genuine

Sir,

In reply to your previous letter no 31729 dated 2nd instant regarding the operations in connection with the seed supply in which attention is drawn to the great difference which exists between the estimate and the return with regard to the number of occupation sown with seeds. I beg to refer to my letter of the 15th instant which accompanied the return and to add that I am fully satisfied the return is more than approximately correct.

You know I have not the slightest doubt that you would be much obliged that when he received his salary or expenses, of the so termed it, he would pay his Hotel bill but the persons have nothing whatever to do with the payment of that and transacting

M. Madam,

Returning to you letter of the 16th inst last concerning an account for attendance of Messrs Ramsay from the 11th Nov. to the 9th Dec last at works at the rate of £1:1:0 and £1: for travelling expenses, total £5:14:0 I beg to inform you that Messrs Ramsay's sickness was registered for one fortnight from the 11th to 26th Nov. as Messrs Kearney resumed duty on the expiration of his fortnight leave and that your account should have been for £3:2:0 instead of £5:14:0 which was paid by the Directors through an oversight of mine the matter has now come under the notice of the local government who has questioned the payments with the result that I will be overcharged for the overpayment £0:2:0 I have written to say the overpayment will be recouped by you at once. It was a great mistake to make this blunder will you please let me have your cheque for £2:2:0 by return and make it payable to the Union's Treasurer. The manager of the National Bank Cardiff and also
