as Estimates, Specifications, and plans are submitted. Mr. Jackson undertakes to furnish details as regards the Acetylene gas free of charge, and if your Company furnish any information on the same terms a further meeting will be held when both schemes will be considered and decided upon.

I am directed to state for the information of the Galway County Council that the local expenditure incurred by the guardians of this Union under an Order made in pursuance of section 13 of the Local Government (Ireland) Act 1898 by the local government board in Ireland amounts to £1197: 0: 0. Twenty five per cent of which is to be recouped by the guardian of the County at large and the Clifden Rural District in equal proportions. I am therefore directed by the guardians to request that your Council will remit £1197: 13: 0. Or less a sum of £1: 11: 11 being a portion of the amount realised from the sale of the tools used upon the relief works recently in operation in the Union.
