to sign the bond as you know it is the only your final answer on all this subject security my sister can have for it, as for receiving by return of the post. I hope I need not ing interest on that sum which she is entitled again a part you how happy the hopes I too, she cannot give up that, but if it is we have of seeing you & your family your conveniency to pay in the sum all at next summer in England makes us. once it would be rather more agreeable, I beg you to assure Mrs French of every to her, but she would not wish to increase affectionate from me & inconveniency you for it, at the same time the our sincere love to she cannot give up the interest on it Nephew & Nieces my O Driscoll

I must now compliment you on your exactness in keep your account; you will find every advantage in so doing for most people are ruined through indolence & a want of exactness in keeping their account, which I am happy to see will not be your case, my Sister Chichester had a letter last night from my Uncle Nagle two sides long, all written by himself & very well wrote, tho' not quite as steady a hand as he wrote before his illness, from his letter he seems perfectly well & in good spirits, he is really a wonder-full man of his age. as for Mr Charles I am very I cannot give as favourable <sup>an</sup> account of him, I think him in a very poor state of health, & has been but poorly since he came here, by the assistance of Doctor Gibbs he has got better, however he requires great attention to his health, he seems alarmed about his health, & is extremely nervous, so we give him every hopes of his recovery. your old schoolfellow Porter Welsh died suddenly about a fortnight ago in at Dawlish in Devonshire - he was in so bad a state of health this time past, that his recovery was scarcely expected, he was always very particular in his enquiries about you Mr Porter I hear is inconsolable, I fear he has left his affairs very deranged he was to vain for the advantage of his family, Mr White has been in London for some days to consult about a deafness Miss White is very poorly the faculty have but a poor opinion of her she goes to Clifton - as soon

Dr Sir

I Received your favour of the 6th inst and inclose you the Submissions as you desired which you'll be so good as to get executed and an Affidavit of the Defendant sworn before a Master Extraordinary for taking Affidavits in the Court of Chancery, the Affidavit is ready in by to fill up the name of the Witness who is to swear it,

As to my observation that I can make you are fully satisfied of that subject, all I can say is that I wished he had gone to England when he was here, and as I imagined he then intended, Mr Chichester is pressed for Money that he owes, the Property that Mr French is satisfied of should induce any Person that has money to spare to lend it to him without hesitation or Reluctance upon an Assignment of the Deed, if the Property were in any Place where my Acquaintances are I think I would not be at a loss in getting money on such a Security being far preferable to a Mortgage or a Judgment, as at any time the Lender wants his Money the calling of it in could not be attended with any Delay, nor will the Raising or Drawing the Money be attended with any Expence to either Party as Mortgages frequently are, and the Delay given by the Borrower often prevents the finding of Money, one instance of which I have now with Mr Lane of Lane bank where ~~the~~ <sup>he</sup> ~~is~~ <sup>is</sup> giving every opposition of delay and Obstruction to avoid a Decree, I had a Letter this day there should be any attempt to make you go into Custody no by no means should attempt to go; if the Bail Bonds should be refused you of course will refuse the Bail - and you'll give us much time as you can by giving Bail. - I think of you to write to all things not to go into Custody.

Yours sincerely

My Dear Nephew

Your very kind and most affectionate letter came to hand in course from which I observe and I make no doubt that you are all much afflicted for the premature loss of so good a man and so excellent a Parent, in this unfortunate event it is no small Consolation that in you he has left a Successor who inherits all his virtues and merit, one on whom the family may depend on his religiously observing and executing his intentions expressed to yourself in the presence of Mr Starte you may rest assured that I will most readily concur with you in doing every thing in my power respecting yours, your Mother and Sisters welfare and happiness, as I find you have a considerable farm near Tuam (a good Country and consequently valuable) out of Lease next May.
I would advise you not to make a promise of preference to any person or to make any bargain

Galway County Council Archives over the bottle but in the morning after mature consideration and consulting friends, my Brother when a young man was taken in when half intoxicated, by extracting a promise from him of letting 200 and odd acres at 10<sup>s</sup> per acre on a lease renewable for ever near Malton at present worth 2 guineas the acre, which he repented all his life and for which he made ample amends by the purchases he since made. the next observation to be made is at what time the Land was leased as the letting farms in this Country and I may say all over England have doubled and in some instances much more than doubled in the course of the last 20 years in the County Cork it is usual when a considerable <sup>farm</sup> is to be let to advertise it in the newspaper and to direct proposals to be given in writing then you may choose such a tenant as may best suit you for character and responsibility but this may not be the mode in the County Galway but certainly notice must be given and proposals received at Rahasane or any other place that you may appoint. I suppose you have not in Ireland persons of character who make a profession of valuing Land as is often done in England and some make large fortunes by it it is with such a one that my Nephew Joseph Chichester is at present; Charles by the last account was still at Malton but expects soon to be ordered to Sicily. as to your farm I think it may not be amiss to mention my being the acting Executor during your minority with best wishes for yourself

My Dear Nephew

I received a day or two past a very kind and most affectionate letter from your Dear Mother in which she expresses her love for yourself and sisters and therein informs me of her intention of leaving Ireland with her Daughters as soon as the family affairs are settled and that her intention is to go to Bath and to engage you and Mr. Harter to be of the party in which I think she judges very properly for it would be very imprudent in you to remain in Ireland till of a more mature age, and you now require seeing a little more of the world and you generally <sup>have there</sup> in winter some of the best company in England and you could occasionally make excursions to the part of the Country in the Summer months and cannot doubt <sup>you</sup> my being always happy to see you My Niece farther

Alfred French Esq

to be good as to let me know what course you expect in the War near Swam, whether any offer has been made for it and whether the last war for a long time tells me how she is at present Circumstanced with respect to the family expences which she says <sup>were</sup> ~~are~~ still equal to what they were when your Father was living and which she proposes reducing in some degree when she is enabled to discharge such servants as are not now wanting in order to which she wishes you to dispose of her Coach as soon as a fair price is offered for it, it cost with the late repairs nearly £400 but I think it will be well disposed of if it produces half that sum as second hand articles lose much of their value the claims on plate any thing but her jointure she adds that you would send me a list of his debts when the Court be ascertained and also a rental of the estate the debts I fear must be considerable, as his judgements for the last two years, the going to Dublin consulting Dr Loring &c while there, the measure taken for the recovery of Mary Anne & must necessarily have been attended with very great expence. I owed him on selling my Brothers account £500 Irish <sup>which</sup> I would pay now, that I am persuaded it is much required if I conveniently could but I have no personal prosperity, such as I have being in Land and <sup>if any way</sup> if sold it must lessen the value of the estate and ultimately fall upon you however if you can raise £200 or 300 upon my Bond I will willingly pass such a one to accommodate you and then for the purpose intended your mother signifies her resolution of giving of her legacy from her aunt's Argmon to defray the expences of the journey I am sorry the should be reduced to that necessity I beg you will be so good as to assure her of my earnest good wishes for her welfare and happiness as well as that of yourself and sisters and to thank her for me for her very obliging <sup>letter</sup> from which I am very sorry to learn that her health is somewhat impaired but I hope will soon be reestablished I am my Dear G<sup>d</sup> Nephew to ~~live~~ My Dear Robert yesterday from Bath

Since my last I have had no return of the bleeding at the nose and the only inconvenience I found from it was my being forbid to writing letters as the sleeping might bring it on again I thank you for sending me a schedule of your fathers debts which indeed are very considerable and which <sup>you</sup> cannot but be sensible that great prudence and much care is required on your part to extricate yourself and the family from embarrassment in order to which you must be very exact in the payment of interest for if you should neglect it it will inevitably be attended with the total ruin of your estate I wish you could get some friendly honest person to direct you in the management of your concerns for not being on the spot <sup>it is not</sup> possible for me to give you any essential advice I believe you judge properly in selling the stock and advertising the grass but yet I would not have you do it without consulting better judges than I can be at this distance I would not advise yourself or Mother and Sisters to leave Ireland till you have put every thing on a proper footing as first it will be necessary to calculate your expenses and to be certain of your payments as lodgings and house rent are very dear at Bath as well as every thing else I should be glad to know whether the money due from Lord Ormond has been paid by a sketch I have made of your rental and the debts I fear you will not have sufficient left to be able to live at Rahasane at least for some time I have cast up the family debt of £21,500 at 5 per cent I suppose for the rest you will be obliged to pay six per cent. however in recollection I understand your creditors cannot by Law compel you to payment of his debts, and of course will be glad to get the interest on your terms 5 per cent which will make the balance more in your favour but as I think it would not be prudent in you to live at Rahasane for at least three years you might tell the Grays of the Demerit for that time during which you could reside with your Mother and Sisters which would be some assistance to them in house keeping and as much economy will be necessary avoid as much as possible all incumbrance and letting the interest run on which would in a few year put it out of your power ever to pay it but with resolution you will find the debt less every day and then you will be able to live with comfort at Rahasane or where ever you please I beg my Dear & Pephew that you will not take a step my giving you my thoughts on this subject as I have yours and familys interest much at heart express my affectionate <sup>regards</sup> to your Mother and Sisters with

Dear Robert

I write you a few lines in my sister's letter & also write you a another letter the next day wherein I beg of you to remitt the two hundred & ~~forty~~ <sup>forty nine</sup> ~~po.~~ to Messieurs Thierwan's line Street London & will be so good <sup>as in future</sup> to desire M<sup>r</sup> Freagh always to remitt the money to M<sup>r</sup> Thierwan. M<sup>r</sup> Freagh has not remitted the above ~~£249~~ <sup>£249</sup> for had he done M<sup>r</sup> Thierwan would have apprised us of it. I beg my dear Robert you will write to him immediately to do so, as we want the money much. If I think you ought to be strict on M<sup>r</sup> Freagh as it was remis <sup>in</sup> him to have delay'd so long in ~~fulfilling~~ fulfilling your orders that there is no being too strict on all agents Now my dear Robert you want to know the news of Bath & I will begin with what concerns you, there are to reports concerning the one is that you are certainly married to Miss Thearne & her Mother is given as an author for it by a letter she <sup>is said</sup> ~~wrote~~ to have wrote to a Lady in Worcestershire who wrote it to a friend of hers in <sup>the</sup> town

The report has gained so much credit that people will not believe but what we know some thing of it however if it is so you are very discreet to us the second report is that a gentleman in this town had a letter from Dublin mentioning that you were on the turf £3000 & that you have a great stud of horses I know the gentleman received <sup>the</sup> letter but I hope it was a Dublin report, as the £3000 is a very good thing. I should regret much you were it on the turf or in any kind of gambling as I think it the ruin of any young man to be on the turf or gamble in any kind of way, & such people are never considered people of character & keeping many horses is a ~~ruinous~~ ruinous thing for any property but particularly race horses I am sorry you have not gone to the County Cork to look after your property there as I think it has an odd appearance & may make you agents think you are negligent about your affairs, we all look forward with the greatest pleasure to the happiness of seeing you after the spring apices & hope you have not changed your resolution of coming here to see us before you go to London as you were so good as to say you intended <sup>to</sup> am sure you dont doubt of the happiness it always gives to see you, I came here from Devonshire yesterday with my Sister Chichester & her family who are come to spend sometime with us & who <sup>hope</sup> to have the pleasure of seeing you here when you come I found my Sister Fanny still very low & poorly but we all hope as does her medical people that she will soon get better when the fine weather comes Bath is very gay I hear as it is generally at this season concert private ball &c Sir Richard Nagle & his family are here & go out a great deal. They make a very genteel appearance the Miss Nagles are not pretty are <sup>considered</sup> in general rather plain. Mr Grant is here & after them but I dont ~~believe~~ <sup>believe</sup> he will ~~succeed~~ <sup>succeed</sup> his being after them is only my own surmise. You is to write you a long letter about Miss Metcalfe ~~and~~ her Disappointment in regard to Mr Howard your Aunt sends you a thousand loves as does Mr Charles & all. it gave to mine to receive the dear assurance little gift to Mary unweaned, that I have been prevented by circumstances from acknowledging your goodness though much I am that you should have sent her a thing so costly I will however preserve it as a Memorial of your regard until she is of an age to understand the value she ought to set on it for the sake of her who gave it. I cannot tell you my dearest Mama how much it grieved me to hear of your having returned on your of a few years in countries considered in our Memories as the scene of our young things unsubling to human nature has been exhibited as well as for the desires they still retain of former greatness, must afford to a like yours the highest source of qualification yet I must plead guilty to certain selfish feelings which prevent me from enjoying the prospect of advantage and pleasure you will derive from such a tour; and I hope that I may for your long absence pardon me from every other consideration. One thing however I will hope, that where ever you go you will bear with you the remembrance of a friend whose affection and concern

Dear Mrs French,

I write you these few lines hoping that you Robert the Ladies the Major and the Doctor are quite well. To you who delight so much in Poetry, no offering can be more acceptable than a Poetical one: I therefore beg your acceptance of a work I have often mentioned to you at Raharane Campbell's "British Poets" and also the last number of the Edinburgh Review containing a criticism of the above work; Dublin is getting very empty and consequently stupid. I hope you continue to take long walks but I am afraid now that the seats are finished that there is now lying down that walking about. I spoke to Miss Carpenter, who mentioned that she had sent down the bill. If you have any commissions, I shall be most happy to execute them. I shall send down the books I have <sup>above</sup> mentioned, this evening and hope you will get them safe. I beg to be sincerely remembered to you Robert and all friends at Raharane

My Dear Mother

I could not get horses to do anything. therefore we must wait till April when we will be well prepared. I know nothing about the Lancashire Races for next year has been done - pray recollect the Cook & a Horse maid you will also oblige me by enquiring about a Cartload or two more Horses & a pair of Horns. I like Black ones.

Very sincerely yours
D. J. Hancock

When next you come to town, pray get me a Cartload for horses the same as before speaking to you etc.
