collection of the current rates.

An abstract was furnished by return of post.

3860-o/98. } Referring to an entry on the subject
30th Sept. } contained in a Minute of the 24th inst.,
and requesting that the Board may be furnished with a certificate from the Union Treasurer of the amount of interest due on the overdraft obtained for relief works purposes up to the 16th of July last, the date on which the works were closed, as the Guardians themselves are liable for the full amount of interest payable on any balance outstanding after that date.

Also requesting that the Auctioneer's account of the sale of tools used on the works be forwarded to them as soon as possible.

The Union Treasurer's certificate, and the Auctioneer's account accompany the copy of Minutes to the L. G. Board.

Pate Collector J. Hannon, Aran Island, wired that no steamer called at the Island yesterday, consequently he was unable to attend before the Guardians, but expected to be able to come to Galway on Thursday and make a lodgment of Rates.

Mr Perry, County Surveyor, furnished a copy of Auctioneer's account of the sale of the tools used in the relief works, and enclosed a cheque for £1.8.4 being the balance, after deducting the expenses, from the amount realized by the sale. He also recommended the payment of a sum of £1 to three men for blasting work on the relief works. Payment ordered.

In response to advertisements applications for the positions of a trained medical and surgical nurse, four wardmaids and a wardman in the Hospitals were received.

Order - The applications to be referred to the Medical Officers of the Workhouse for examination and report.

Order - Mr Bailey, Rate Collector, to be called upon to close his collection within a week, and to prepare arrears lists for the examination of the Rate Committee.

The Clerk's estimate of the rates required to meet the expenditure of the Union from the 29th prox., to the 31st of March next, was considered.

Resolved - That the Clerk's estimate be adopted except where fractions of a penny appear, the fractions to be struck out.

The special rate for relief works expenses on the Electoral Divisions of Kilsunnish, Killaquin, Selerna, and Spiddal, to be added to the ordinary rate.
