If not that he should at once place his resignation in the hands of the Guardians who should then fill his place by the appointment of "a skilled Teacher of some standing" as suggested by the Inspector - and that - as regards the female Teacher it appears to them to be a question for immediate consideration whether she should be allowed to hold her situation any longer -

The Teachers were called before the Board; as regards the male Teacher the Guardians are satisfied from his short tenure of office at the time of inspection that he is no way answerable for the unsatisfactory state of the School:—

As regards the female Teacher she was informed that in case of a repetition of a similar complaint she would at once be called on to resign -

With reference to the Guardians resolution that Mr. Killian, Relieving Officer, be given another trial; requesting to be ~~forwarded~~ informed on what grounds the Guardians desire that his conduct should be overlooked, also requesting to be furnished with a copy of any explanation which he may have offered on the subject.

In reply to the enquiry of the Local Government Board the Guardians desire to state that the grounds for their merciful view of Mr. Killian's case are, the fact of Mr. Killian being ill ~~of~~ in fever; and that during the recent smallpox epidemic he discharged his duties so very satisfactorily.

The only explanation from Mr. Killian is that forwarded with Minutes of 25th April last and Medical certificate with minutes of 23rd May

No. 116.33/79
29th May

Referring to a Report from Dr. Raughan, Local Government Inspector stating that it is impossible for the Master of the Workhouse who was appointed temporary Relieving Officer to discharge this duty without neglecting his own, and requesting the Guardians to make some other arrangement for the performance of the duties.

Order - That Mr. J. Cullinan be appointed to attend to these duties for the present.

Pursuant to his notice of Motion - Mr. J. J. Kirwan moved and Mr. M. J. O'Haherty seconded -

That any remuneration voted for Drs. Clayton and Colohan be rescinded -

An amendment was moved by Mr.

Pierce

Pierce Joyce, seconded by Mr. Geo. E. Burke -
That if any remuneration was properly voted to Drs. Clayton and Colohan it be rescinded and the consideration of the matter be adjourned to this day six months.

Mr. Redington read and handed in the following amendment: - That we rescind the resolution which appears on our Minutes of 18th April last granting remuneration of £75 each to Dr. Clayton & Colohan, and that we confirm the Resolution recorded on our Minutes of same date voting a sum of £50 to each of these gentlemen.

The Chairman refused to receive this Amendment saying he did not consider it legal to put an amendment on an amendment, but intimated his willingness to put Mr. Redington's amendment in the event of his (Mr. Joyce's) being lost.

The Board then divided on Mr. Joyce's amendment which was declared carried, 21 Voting for it, and 11 against: - The voting was as follows,

For the Amendment		Against

Mr. P. J. Grealy postponed the consideration of the notice of Motion which stood in his name for a similar period -

Mr. M. F. O'Flaherty proposed, and Mr. John N. Blake seconded the following resolution which was carried unanimously -

That having seen in the newspapers a report that a Bill is now before Parliament, one of the objects of which is to double the fees of Medical Officers for vaccination, and that the Government is favouring this proposal, which is being promoted solely in the interest of the Poor Law Medical Officers, on the specious plea, that a higher scale of vaccination fees prevail in England than in this country, ~~and~~ altogether ignoring the fact, that a wide gulf divides both countries in material wealth and resources, showing by this standard that our present local burthens are relatively far higher than those in England - We beg then most respectfully strongly to protest against this fresh attempt to impose a new burthen on the people of Ireland for a class of Gentlemen already sufficiently paid.

We would then request our County and Town Members to offer every opposition in their power to the proposed measure -

Ordered. Clerk to send copy to County and Town Members -

Application from the Clerk of the Union for an extension of his leave of absence for one week -
