The accommodation at present is wretched, there being but one closet on the male and female side respectively, at a distance from the hospital. This is out of the reach of the more delicate patients, who in severe weather are unable to leave their beds to cross the yard. July 1st visited the Hospital and heard most serious complaints made against Mrs Kelly the Gate Keeper's wife. It was stated by the Matron, the Nurses and patients that Mrs Kelly accented the Hospital about 2 1/2 today, breaking the windows and flinging in stones. Causing the greatest confusion and terror among the Patients. One of whom was struck in his head by a stone thrown through a window. It was with the greatest difficulty that she was removed. I understood Mrs Kelly and Husband are causing the most serious trouble from time to time owing to drink. Mrs Keane stated that she binds her own business and does not know how Kelly or the wife goes on. She also stated that she never saw Kelly or the wife under the influence of drink. I think Mr Keane comprising herself any seriously by such statements if the reports that have come to me from other sources be correct. I hope inquiry into the state of things will be made. I have no doubt that scenes such as took place today might be attended with fatal results to weak patients while the possibility of such scenes is a great disgrace to our Institution. In conclusion I have to remark that the reluctance of people in charge to give full information is most painful to witness. Not to speak of the encouragement it gives to disorder

It is the opinion of the Committee that the Male and Female Pauper Nurses are deserving of much censure for neglecting to report to the proper authorities the facts stated by Father Carolan but at the same time owing to their previous good character the Committee will not recommend their removal.
