Other members present. Mess<sup>rs</sup> M. Tierney, H. M. Sullivan Sen<sup>r</sup>, J. Walsh Esq. Mayor and L. J. Ferdinand.

Dr. Raghaw & G. B. Inup<sup>r</sup> & Rev. Mr. Sullivan attended.

Mr. Townsend Esq. produced the Maps of the Cemetery, and explained the manner in which he had assimilated the prices of Vault and Grave spaces in the several sections to those of Cork, less 30% - the prices of spaces being marked in pencil the more readily to be understood.

After some discussion, the following resolution proposed by Mr. Walsh & seconded by Mr. Sullivan was carried, Mr. Ferdinand alone dissenting.

Resolved - "That we are of opinion that the Cork scale of prices less 30% would still leave the charges too high for this locality, and that we recommend 50% to be substituted for 30% under Cork scale of charges."

Unanimously Resolved - "That we strongly recommend immediate action be taken in following matters, viz,

Construction of extra walls as defined on Cemetery Maps.

That the necessary Books for use in connection with Cemetery be procured.

3rd That the Maps be furnished, and that as it is essentially necessary that copies be supplied for use in Cemetery Registry Office, that Mr Townsend be instructed to prepare traced copies.

4th That Grave diggers be appointed at a fixed price for digging each class of Grave, and that none other than those appointed be allowed to dig or interfere with Graves.

That each Grave be dug under the supervision of Superintendent who will be responsible for regularity to
