of Guardians propose to grant a superannuation allowance, and stating that Mr. Lynch having completed only 22 years service, the superannuation allowance he would be entitled to according to the scale laid down in Board's Circular Letter of 25th November, 1881, is $\frac{23}{60}$ ths of his salary and emoluments or £44 a year, but to meet the wishes of the Guardians as far as possible the Board would be willing to permit ten years to be added to his actual service in computing his pension, and to allow the pension to be fixed at £64 a year.

On the motion of Mr. J. J. Kirwan, seconded by Major J. W. Lynch it was unanimously Resolved - that we respectfully beg that the Local Government Board will take the matter again into consideration, that we direct their attention to the fact that Mr. Lynch was compelled to retire owing to an accident met with in the discharge of his duties, also to his advanced years and to the large meeting of the Guardians at which the vote of £80 a year was carried by a large majority. - That we urge in the most respectful manner, that sanction be given to the vote of £80 a year under the circumstances.
