Gentlemen I beg to report that I have ordered ten persons to be summoned before the Magistrate at Petty Sessions on Wednesday next for persisting in keeping their premises in a filthy condition. Fifty persons have been served with the usual Sanitary notices to abate nuisances on their premises. I regret to add that there ^{has been} several cases of Leues in Quay Street, the Fish Market, and Blind arch. - these places are densely crowded by Connemara people who keep their premises in a most filthy condition. I beg to call the attention of the Board to the filthy state of several streets in the Town, viz. Suckeen, the Bowling Green, Henry Street, Shell Lane, Kelly's Lane, New Street west, with the New Road. - there are heaps of nuisance accumulating for weeks on these streets. I understand that Town Steward being limited in scavengers is at present unable to cope with the difficulty.

A Return was laid before the Board showing that $\frac{1}{3}$ of the fines imposed by the Magistrates on parties proceeded against by Mr Cullen, Sanitary Officer, from 9th June to 5th November 1862 amounts to £1.9.6. and against this sum there was a set off of £1.6.0 for stamps used in dismissed cases, leaving a balance of $\frac{2}{3}$ to credit of the Guardians, for which the Treasurer's receipt was produced.
