now decided that Gort would supply six players and five each from Beagh, Peterswell and Kilmacduagh according to the abilities of the players.

NAMES OF KNOWN MEMBER.

The list of players selected is unfortunately incomplete. Only the names of sixteen are now known to us. Of them all only Ned Treston, the captain on that notable day, now remains alive. The South Galway Board in 1935 presented medals to the then surviving members of the South Galway team. They were: Edward Treston (Capt.) and Michael McCarthy (Gort); Pat Nestor and Michael Quinn (Kilmacduagh); Fergus Kelly and Pat Farrell of Peterswell, and Martin Halloran, a native of Beagh, but a member of the Gort club. Other members of the team were John Treston, a brother of the captain; James Fitzgerald, John Morgan and Jim Sexton, all of Peterswell; Fergus Helebert, Roger Grealish, and Carr of Kilmacduagh; Tom Keehan and Jack Golden of Gort.

(To be concluded)

U.C.G. Scholarship Student—Norman G. Farragher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Farragher, Lowville, Ahascragh, has been awarded a Galway County Council Scholarship of £100.

with the recommendation that the assignment be not given until a non-subsidy house is offered to Michael Carroll and his wife who presently occupy the caretaker's apartments in the hospital.

The County Manager told the meeting that the building was an old one and had been purchased for £600 originally.

Excursion To Galway—Over 550 passengers travelled in the excursion train from Athlone to Galway on Sunday which was the first excursion since 1945. Although it is not definitely arranged, it is probable that there will be another excursion on Sunday week next.
