13 June 1845.

Gentlemen,

with reference to my Report of the 16th Ultimo, concerning the Workhouse Dietary, I am happy to be able to state, that the change adopted on my suggestion, has been attended with the best results, the bowel complaints amongst the inmates generally, having almost entirely disappeared since its adoption; altho I am most anxious to save expence to the Union, I do not feel I would be discharging my duty concientiously, if I did not recommend the Guardians, to continue the present diet, during the summer months, I think however, Skim Milk may be substituted for new Milk at dinner.

I have the honor to remain Gent^l Yr most obed^t
