By Authority—Printed by ALEX. THOM & SONS, 87 and 88, Abbey-street, Dublin.

The subject of Mr Alexander's Memorial to the Commissioners, to have a collecting District at Kinvara, for the Electoral Division of Leahermore, Doora, Killinny, and Kinvara, having been brought before the Board.—

It was proposed by Mr Fitzpatrick seconded by Mr Pat Burke

That as to the proposition of making a separate collecting district of Kinvara Leahermore Killinny and Doora. This Board on the 22^d of October by a Majority of 14 to 6 declared it was unnecessary and inexpedient, on the 29^d of October a unanimous vote of the Board (consisting of 18 Members) reelected Mr Hardiman as Collector to the district at large, as it is at present constituted, which Election has been since ratified and approved of by the Commissioners, on the 26^d Ult this Board executed their warrant to and received from Mr. Hardiman his bond as such Rate collector, which several acts are so many distinct declarations of opinion from this Board on this subject.—

The Board (Specially convened this day to consider a memorial purporting to emanate from certain Ratepayers) do not think it necessary to notice the unworthy reflection, therein sought to be cast on the other occupations of Mr Hardiman, (which are all respectable) but they do aver that those engagements do not interfere with the efficient discharge of his duties as Rate collector, that he attends at the markets of Kinvara (which is the centre of those districts) from week to week at stated periods to receive the rate, and further that he often visits the remotest villages to make personal application for payment thereof, extending to all the greatest forbearance and indulgence.—

Whatever ^{ultimatum} the object of this perverse contention may be this Board is satisfied that it is not the luxury of having a Tax-collector resident at their doors that is desired by the complainants. In conclusion the Board pray that the commissioners will put an end to this frivolous controversy and their bests unanimous to
