ordered that the Commissioners be informed, the Guardians are not satisfied with the opinion in the case of Bridget Flynn, the Guardians are aware that if she had not left the Union, and remained out of it for the period stated, she would be properly chargeable as before she left the Workhouse, but the fact of her not having resided ^{in the Union} even for one day, from the day she left the Workhouse until the day she returned to it, a period of ten months, leads the Guardians to believe, she is chargeable to the Union at large, as the residence for the whole period of three years in the Union, previous to her present application, should be brought under the notice of the Commissioners, the Guardians request the Commissioners will again take this case into consideration. —
