The following Letters from the Local Government Board for Ireland and others were read by the Clerk, and directions given to answer them respectively to the following effect (or Orders made on them respectively as follows):—

Resolved — That Ellen Connolly & John Fury be allowed £1 to assist their emigration to be charged to Kivara Division

In compliance with the Local Gov. Boards request in their letter of 2nd inst the guardians next considered the Rate Collectors explanation regarding the collection of the rates when the following minute was drawn up:— In Mr Corbett's District on a collection last year of £1103 there remained due on 12th August £423 whilst on a collection this year of £1286 the

The amount due is £330 only. This shows a considerable improvement on the collection last year and the Board think it fairly satisfactory. The collector has undertaken to bring in the outstanding rates with the least possible delay.

In Mr Ardamaus District there is only £80 outstanding out of a rate of £2801 which the Board thinks satisfactory for itself.

The large areas in Mr Corbett's District is accounted for by the fact of his District being so poor & in consequence so much more difficult to collect.

Resolved — "That having read Mr P. C. Spelman's letter to the Local Government Board relative to the late election of guardians for the Kiltartan Electoral Division we consider it due to ourselves as guardians not to let those letters pass without expressing our disapproval of their disrespectful & insulting tone towards the elected guardians of the Union.

It better the position of the tillers of the soil which would relieve the rate payers of the burden of supporting so many pauperised people of Ireland an agitation sprung up a few years ago conducted legally and Constitutionally until the government high handedly suppressed it & filled the jails with those who took part in it were suspected of sympathizing with it. - Among the rest our present Chairman Since Mr. Corbett's election by what we might say the unanimous voice of the people Mr. P. C. Spelman has never missed an opportunity of insulting our Chairman and ourselves by terming him "Suspect" and ourselves an incredible clique and in this way siding with those who opposed the people in their legitimate efforts to redress their grievances. - Therefore does it proper to thus place before the public the conduct of Mr. P. C.

 Spelman in that respect and show him up to his late constituents & the rest of the ratepayers of this Union"
