Order - Information to be supplied

A supply of medicines for use of the infirmary was ordered.

The Clerk was granted one day's leave each week for the next few weeks. The Master will look after his business

Order -

Ask the Local Govt Board have they now any objection to re-erecting the stairs to the Nunn Rooms for which the Guardians accepted a tender on 12th April last.

The Minutes make the following report:—
"That the Roman Catholic Chaplain has since Sunday last ceased to give daily Mass in the Workhouse, as heretofore, owing to the Guardians having refused him the increase of salary applied for; and that in consequence the Nuns (Matron and Nurses) have absented themselves each morning since from the Workhouse (the holidays excepted) for the purpose of hearing Mass in their Convent in the town returning at about 9 o'cl. — If this practice is to continue it will become necessary for the Guardians to make some arrangement for the performance of these Officers duties particularly in the preparation and giving out of the breakfasts to the sick etc, otherwise it will be attended with great inconvenience if not injustice to these poor people and perhaps also lead to abuses of a more serious nature."

Order - Postponed to this day week for the consideration of a larger Board.
